4404. SHRI YERRA NARAYANA-SWAMY; Will the Minister of FINANCE be pleased to state:

(a) whether Income Tax Depart ment is carrying out an. intensive survey of small scale traders to en force PTS;

(b) what is the minimum outcome a small trader must have so as to come under the ambit of PTS;

(c) whether this survey would result In incresed harassment of small traders; and

(d) if so, the steps proposed to be taken in this regard?

THE MINISTER OF STATE IN THE MINISTRY OF FINANCE (SHRI M. V. CHANDRASHEKARA MURTHY) (a) Survey operations under section 133B of the Income-tax Act, 1961 are intended to obtain information .regarding all kinds of potential assessees irrespective of the types of business or the levels of turnover. They are continuing operations throughout a year to detect new assessees. While it is true that such survey operations will have the effect of persuading the taxpayers to come under the Presumptive Tax Scheme wher-ever eligible, the imensity of surveys are not directly related to the PTS;

(b) according to the proposal contained In the Finance Bill, 1995 presently before Parliament, a person carrying on the business of retail trade etc. can come under the (ambit of PTS during the current financial year, 1995-98 if Ms turnover from the small business does not exceed Rs. 6 lakhs and the income therefrom does not] exceed Rs. 47,000. In respect of the | other business or vocation mentioned; in section 115K the person can not for the scheme if Ms income does not ex-ceed Rs. 47,000 irrespective of the level of turnover. Also, in either case the income from sources others than the small business or vocation should not exceed Rs. 5000 in the aggregate;

(c) and (d) according to the exist. ing instructions, when a survey team comes across a taxpayer who has paid tax under the simplified procedure no furthr questions will be asked regarding the business or vocation declared under the scheme. Hence there is no likelihood of any undue harassment of small traders 5n this regard.
